Equality is about equal rights for all citizens before the law.
The principle of equality between women and men underpins all European policies and is the basis for European integration.
It applies in all areas.

Engage with your own prejudices. Learn how to stand up and say things that won't make you popular and be an ally to other people. Empathy is important.

We are all citizens of one world, we are all of one blood.

To hate people because they were born in another country, because they speak a different language, or because they take a different view on this subject or that, is a great folly.

For the European Union to become a true Union of Equality we need to ensure that all people are treated equally, socially included and able to participate in social and political life without exception.

Pride events symbolise the freedom to love and to be who we are, united in our diversity. But to build a true #UnionOfEquality, we must support and keep on fighting for LGBTIQ equality 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year!

Europe itself is an embodiment of this diversity.

There is no place for racial discrimination and racism of any kind in democratic societies. We must all strive for our societies to be inclusive and tolerant.

Cultural heritage brings us together. It helps strengthen social cohesion, foster tolerance and mutual understanding. The cultural and linguistic diversity of Europe, and the languages spoken are an essential part of its cultural heritage.

Diversity

is a value and belief that each of us as a person has unique gifts and skills and are able to build and change the world. Each of us is a very important part of the world's puzzle.
